Sri G.V.G. Visalakshi College for Women
Re-Accredited at 'A' Grade by NAAC
Udumalpet, Tiruppur Dt.

About the college

Sri G.V.G.Visalakshi College for Women (Autonomous) is an illustrious edifice of learning established with the status of being the first women's College in Tiruppur District in 1952. It was founded by the renowned philanthropist and industrialist Sri G.V.Govindasamy Naidu with the missionary zeal to empower the rural women folk. His grandson Thiru.G. Ravindran, the Managing Trustee and Secretary has emulated the same vigour to sustain the spirit and vision of the founder by offering innovative courses. With a glorious legacy of six decades, it marches ahead in pursuit of academic excellence and scholastic expansion. As an ISO 9001:2008 certified institution with the NAAC Re-Accreditation at the A Grade level (CGPA: 3.53), it gallops ahead by imparting quality education to bring about a holistic upliftment of the self and the society.

About the Department

The intellectual capital of the department comprises of competent faculty with rich experience. It was established in the year 1973 and was upgraded as the research department offering M.Phil and Ph.d programmes. The academia, with its research acumen and collaborative educational programmes entices the learning populace to achieve a high standard in the scholarly and creative enterprise. Intensive coaching and exposure to literary activities lead every learner on the path of progressive discovery of their innate potentials. The department offers a Certificate Course in Communicative English which goes a long way in brightening up their future career prospects.
